SPORTS: BUMPING UP THE SCHOOL SPIRIT: SP VOLLEYBALL SPIRIT GAME 2021

The day had finally come. On September 20th, 2021, St. Paul's Varsity Volleyball hosted Boys Latin in what was the first spirit game of the year. All throughout the previous week, volleyball players were telling their fellow classmates to come out and support and they did not disappoint. SP had students up throughout the stands and teachers also showed up to support their students.

Coming off of a tough loss to a top tier Loyola Blakefield team, SP was looking for redemption against one of their longtime rivals. So, when the game started, they came out firing. Players like Tyler Slabinski '22 and Thomas Magnusson '23 were getting the better of the BL front line for a considerable part of the first set. Then, BL started to get into a rhythm as they found the weak spots of the SP defense. The crowd tried to keep the team in it by using different chants and getting rowdy for their classmates and SP was eventually able to gain control again, taking set one, leaving the score at 1-0.

This was largely in part due to Will Frisch '22 who, as described by his teammates, had one of the best games of his high school volleyball career. Everything sent his way he was able to send right back and his help was crucial when other members of the team weren't able to get to the ball in time.

In the second set, SP continued to stay in control, but BL didn't back down. This set was also quite close, but Will Frisch '22 used his height to block the opposing hitters, putting SP over the edge for this set. Along with Will, players like Charles Konkolics '22, Braeden Klausner '22, and Max Cole '22 kept the team morale high and fed off the energy of the crowd. This left the game 2-0 in favor of SP.

The third set was truly one to remember. SP was up by more than 5 points, but BL rallied back and narrowed the lead. SP was starting to get down on themselves. They were making simple mistakes and there seemed to be some miscommunication on the court. This game was of paramount importance because they were coming off of two difficult losses so they needed to build their confidence back up. The players knew the stakes as BL made a comeback, so they did what they had to in order to win. As the crowd looked on nervously, BL was unable to get the ball over their side of the net for the final time, securing the SP victory.

Throughout the game, Cole VanCourt '22 looked to the crowd and hyped them up. He enjoyed the experience, and described it by saying, "It was so much fun to have everyone out there and have the electricity in the building." In the end, giving the volleyball players an opportunity to have this many eyes on them brought their morale high, allowing them to secure the win, beating BL 3-0 in a clean sweep.

As I write this, the season concluded with a strong game and resulting win against Calvert Hall, advancing the team from 7th to 6th place in the MIAA A Conference. The seniors came ready to dominate their last game and earned the team the placement they deserved. Thanks to this year's team, the volleyball team should have a regular fanbase excited to come out and support again next year.
