

Summer Math Bingo Board

Complete 1 or more bingos.

-Play a math sidewalk chalk game https://frugalfun4boys.com/sidewalk-chalk-math-games/	-Plant your favorite flower or vegetable, predict how high the plant will grow, measure to see how accurate your prediction way	-Go for a nature walk and find 3 or more items with a line of symmetry or that looks like a 3D shapes	-Research and read about a famous mathematician, engineer, or scientist. Make a poster, diorama, PowerPoint or use other media to show what you know.	-Host a lemonade stand, yard sale, or bake sale, count the money you earned
-Create a life-size numberline with chalk. Practice skip counting by 2s, 5s, 10s, or multiples (multiplication)	Play a water balloon math game Water Balloon Math Games (iknowit.com)	-Make your own math boardgame and play it	-Work on addition/multiplication IXL skill	-Write a math word problem for your caregiver and check their work
-Flash Card Race Tape a series of 15 flashcards to the floor and race someone to the finish. This can also be done independently- Try and beat your time.	-Work on a subtraction/division IXL skill for 10-15 minutes	FREE	-Make a paper airplane, throw it 3 times, and measure the distance. Compare the distances.	-Jump like a frog, gazelle, or kangaroo. Measure how far you jump. Compare your jump distance to a sibling or caregiver.
-Practice your measuring skills by following and making a yummy recipe	-Explore Fun Brain. Play a math game of your choice. https://www.funbrain.com/math-zone	-Set up a race route in your yard or neighborhood, run it 3 times, time yourself and compare your results.	-Jump rope, do cartwheels, or hula hoop while you practice your math facts	-Build a structure made of exactly 100 Legos
-Explore Math Curious. Pick a game that interests you. https://mathcurious.com/	-Play addition or multiplication war, Yahtzee or another math game	-Complete a logic puzzle https://www.woojr.com/printable-logic-puzzles-for-kids/	-Make your own trail mix, count, and sort each ingredient you use	-Work on a telling time IXL skill